

STRONGER TOGETHER

RESILIENCE, CONNECTION AND ENGAGEMENT FOR EDUCATIONAL PROFESSIONALS

The demands on education staff have never been greater.

Students arrive with increasingly complex needs, change is constant, and expectations keep rising. And somewhere in the middle of all of it, you are expected to show up every day and give your absolute best.

Stronger Together is a practical and genuinely inspiring day for teachers and teacher aides who want the tools to better support the diverse learners in front of them — and the resilience to keep showing up as their best self. You will leave re-energised, re-focused and armed with strategies you can use the very next day.

Don't just survive the rest of the year — own it.

WHAT ATTENDEES WILL WALK AWAY WITH:

- ✓ Strategies for diverse learning and behavioural needs.
- ✓ Techniques to boost engagement and build positive classrooms.
- ✓ Tools to manage stress and adapt to change.
- ✓ Habits to protect wellbeing and sustain performance.
- ✓ Communication skills to strengthen relationships at work.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Ben Sacco is an education specialist and author with over 20 years of experience in schools and education systems. Grounded in neuroscience, child development and psychology, his work addresses student behaviour, teacher burnout, school culture and whole-school wellbeing. Bruce Sullivan brings 35 years of experience working with schools, families and organisations across Australia. His practical, evidence-informed approach draws on psychology, adult learning and organisational development to help people perform at their best — at work and at home.
